

Practice Time-1

A. Underline the personal pronouns in the following passage.

Neeraj is buying two new pens. He wants to give them to his parents. He loves his parents. They also love him very much. He has an elder sister. She lives with her uncle in Nainital. She studies there only. They all meet during holidays.

B. Fill in the blanks with the correct possessive pronouns. Home work

1. That pen belongs to the girl. That pen is hers.
2. This bag belongs to Sunny. This bag is his.
3. This toy belongs to me. This toy is mine.
4. The house belongs to my uncle and aunt. The house is theirs.
5. Those shirts belong to you. Those shirts are yours.
6. These hats belong to you and your brother. These hats are yours.

3 Demonstrative Pronouns

The word 'demonstrate' means 'to show clearly'. A pronoun that points out the object or objects to which it refers, is called a demonstrative pronoun.

Look at the pictures and read:

